October–December 2026

Welcome to Fall at the Library!

As the days get cooler and the year begins to wind down, there's plenty happening at the Eudora Community Library! From fall programs and Halloween fun to holiday activities and opportunities to gather with our community, we have a busy few months ahead.

We're also continuing to look toward the future as plans for our new library move forward. We're excited about what's ahead and grateful to have our community along for the journey.

Inside this issue, you'll find a look at what's happening at the library from October through December. We hope you'll stop by, join us for a program, find your next great read, or simply spend a little time with us this season.

Happy fall from all of us at the Eudora Community Library!

Ask A Librarian

Q: What if the library doesn't have the book I'm looking for?

A: Don't give up! Through Interlibrary Loan (ILL), we can often borrow books and other materials from another library for you (for FREE). Just ask a staff member—we're happy to help track down what you're looking for!

BUILDING THE FUTURE

Exciting progress is being made on our future home at 736 Main Street! The Library Board has selected B.A. Green Construction of Lawrence to complete the renovations. The next step is for the contractor and architect to begin the design process, with renovations potentially completed in phases as funding allows. The new space will give us more room for programs, services, and our growing community, and we look forward to sharing more updates as the project moves forward!

COMMUNITY SPOTLIGHT

Eudora Area Historical Society

The Eudora Area Historical Society works to preserve and share the stories that make Eudora unique. Through the Eudora Community Museum at 720 Main Street, the organization preserves photographs, newspapers, documents, artifacts, and other pieces of our community's history while offering exhibits and programs for the public. As the library prepares for its own move to Main Street, we're especially excited to soon call the Historical Society our neighbor!

Stop by the Eudora Community Museum and discover a little more about the community we call home!
